

SECRET
D R A F T

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE 3/6

ESTABLISHMENT OF GUIDED MISSILE INTELLIGENCE COMMITTEE

1. Pursuant to the provisions of NSCID Nos. 1 and 3 and for the purpose of strengthening the over-all governmental intelligence structure and to improve intelligence in a field critical to the national security, a permanent Guided Missile Intelligence Committee (GMIC) is hereby established under the Intelligence Advisory Committee. The Committee shall be composed of one member and alternates from the CIA; the Department of State; the Departments of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force; the Joint Staff; the Atomic Energy Commission; the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and the National Security Agency. 1/ Additionally, the Committee should include such ad hoc representation as may be required. The Chairman and Secretariat will be provided by CIA.

2. The mission of the Committee will be to improve guided missile intelligence. To this end, the responsibilities of the GMIC will include the following:

1/ Subject to NSA acceptance of an IAC invitation.

SECRET

~~SECRET~~

- a. Providing over-all coordinated guidance and support to the guided missile intelligence effort;
- b. Recommending new techniques for the collection and analysis of guided missile intelligence;
- c. Providing continuing, coordinated requirements to the collectors;
- d. Establishing the means for making available to the participating agencies all guided missile intelligence information.
- e. Planning and coordinating intelligence research according to the community's capabilities and needs;
- f. Production of coordinated intelligence on guided missiles to serve as contributions to national intelligence estimates.
- g. Production of coordinated intelligence studies on guided missiles to be published under CMIC rubric in NIS or otherwise;
- h. Providing staff support to the IAC with respect to international conferences and planning in guided missile intelligence.

- 2 -
SECRET

SECRET

3. The GMIC, JATIC, the SEC, and the EIC shall mutually assist each other in the accomplishment of their respective missions.

4. The GMIC will conduct liaison, as may be necessary in the accomplishment of its mission, with other U. S. Government organizations involved with either foreign or native guided missile activities.

5. The GMIC will establish its method of procedure.

6. The GMIC shall report to the IAC periodically on progress in its field. Any problems that cannot be resolved by the GMIC shall be reported to the IAC immediately.

7. This directive supersedes DCID 3/4 insofar as guided missile intelligence aspects are concerned.

SECRET